

Ronald G. Bayot attended Wayne State University and then went on to Detroit College of Law where he received his law degree. While there, he was a student attorney for the 36th District Court's Misdemeanor Defenders Office and clerked with the Federal Defenders Office.

Since moving to Alpena in 1999, he has represented indigent clients in circuit and district courts, as well as in the family division and probate court for the counties of Alpena and Montmorency. He helped establish and was a founding member for the Drug Treatment Court in Alpena and the Veterans Treatment Court in Montmorency. He has been with our office as a Deputy Defender since our inception in July of 2021.

Mr. Bayot is also an adjunct instructor at Alpena Community College where he has taught courses in criminal law, criminal procedure, business law, and corrections law.
